SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE

WE Dedicate this Annual to the Mothers and Fathers in sincere appreciation of all they have done for us in making possible our days at Sweet Briar.

MISS EMILIE W. McVEA

PRESIDENT

The Spirit of Sweet Briar

QUIETLY, gently, she was wont to slip down the old stair-way into the garden that she loved. There flowers bloomed for her and the misty hills of the Blue Ridge encircled her. When she went away to the great city with its hurry and excitement the very name of Sweet Briar still made a song in her heart. It sang to her of loveliness and kindliness and home.

To us, too, Sweet Briar means beauty. The spirit of our college must ever include the love of beauty,—beauty in nature, in art, in life; the beauty of orderly thought and orderly living; the beauty born of murmuring sound, of friendship with nature.

Encircling us, as they encircled that little girl of long ago, are the everlasting hills glorifying our campus and adding strength to its beauty. They are to us the symbol of that confidence and quiet power of which the girl of today has need, the power of a well-developed body, a vigorous and questing mind, a soul informed by earnest purpose and high vision.

We are surrounded on every hand by loveliness and by the simplicities of nature, and through these we may learn to think sincerely, to live truly, to serve nobly. May the spirit of Sweet Briar so inform our minds and hearts that we may go forth from our beautiful college with power and joy and courage to meet life's great adventure.

—EMILIE WATTS McVEA.

The type of girl you like to know;
We have always found her so.

RUTH TAYLOR

PITTSBURGH, PA.

A loyal friend, of boundless worth,
With a sense of humor; a quiet mirth,

HELEN TREMAN

ROCK ISLAND, ILL.

A good friend she has proved whate'er the time,
To tell her fine qualities—too short the rhyme.

MARY T. WATKINS

HENDERSON, N. C.

A fluff—a ruff—a curl—
And in the midst an unusual girl.

EVELYN WAY

RALEIGH, N. C.

Firm reason—a temperate will—
Refreshing ways—brains and skill.

MARY ELISABETH WELCH

ST. PETER BURG, FLA.

A quiet content—restful and sweet;
A soft drawling voice—a comfort to meet.

VIRGINIA WHITLOCK

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Peppy and humorous with a good old line--
We like to be with her all the time.

AMY M. WILLIAMS

EAST ORANGE, N. J.

Laugh and play and shirk with her,
But you know her best when you work with her.

Margaret Nelson, President

Student Government Association

THIRTY years ago there was introduced in one college the original "Honor System" and, after a successful demonstration of its efficiency, it was rapidly adapted elsewhere until with some extension and refinements in the methods of operation, it has become the framework of our present, highly developed and successful form of student government.

It may be conceded as being an impossibility to develop a human institution that is perfect in its operation, but, given conscientious, intelligent and complete co-operation on the part of every student, student government approaches perfection to a degree that challenges comparison and, in its operation, the individual responsibility is an influence for the development and elevation of character that can hardly be excelled.

Ada Tyler, President

Sweet Briar Christian Association

THE purpose of the Sweet Briar Christian Association is to spread the spirit of friendship thru out the campus, and to make ourselves felt as a force in the community. In endeavoring to carry out our purpose many opportunities for service are offered. Work is done with the maids on the place, the people at the Indian Mission, and the poor house. We hope that the work of the Association will continue to be worthwhile in the future, as it has in the past.

Dramatics

DRAMATICS have always held a prominent place in the life of Sweet Briar. We have attempted to raise the dramatic quality and standard of our plays by leaving behind the amateur theatricals and trying to give performances more worthy of the name. We are more than ever confident of being successful in this aim, because of the talent, not only of our old members but also among our new ones.

May Day

Awake thou slumberer! Arise!
And leave behind thee all thy sighs
For lo! the sun's been up awhile,
On small and great and all doth smile.
Awake, sweet sleeper, to the dawn!
Before another day has gone,
Down by the dogwood in the dell,
Where the nymphs and muses dwell,
The fairest maid in all the land.
With all her host a fairy band,
Shall wear a crown of roses gay
And be the sweet young queen of May.
So come and dance with them and sing
The praises of the Queen of Spring.

G. Kinsley.

Then Freshman antic, Sophomore frown,
A gala day 'till sun went down.
On Founder's Day.

Our Catty Corner

Popular indoor sports
played the year around;
Juniors rushing Freshmen
'til the crushes do abound!
Freshmen all excited
give the homage due.
We wonder if the Juniors think they fool us, too!

(Apologies to Kipling's "Danny Deaver")

"Why do the girls all smile at me?" said the Freshman green,
They want your vote, they want your vote, that is all they mean.
"Why are they nice, so very nice?" said the Freshman green,
They make you see how cute they are, they think they're awfully keen.
For they're running to be queen; you can hear the May-day song
As it echoes in their minds, as they shove the smiles along;
They are so sweet and pretty as election day comes 'long—
For they're running for May Queen at old Sweet Briar!

Bringing up the Freshmen.

BR'ER RABBIT, BORN AND BRED IN THE BRIAR PATCH SAYS:

"The early bird gets the bacon or apple butter."
"If at first you don't succeed, try a re-exam."
"A name tape in time saves from grime."
"Cutting is the better part of failure."
"A date in the parlor is worth two in the gym."
"The more waist, the less feed."
"The friend in need, is the friend we feed."
"Those who have campus rooms, should not leave their shades up."

Sonnet to Mr Rhea

Unfailing knight who bravely bears the mail,
With valiant cause and bus of orange hue,
Unknown thy value save to favored few,
Unsung thy praises and untold thy tale,
To thee whose awe-full voice demands the kale
And threatens oft to miss a train or two,
To thee we dedicate this verse and state anew
Our reverence for thy voice that makes us quail.
But still when tired by travels, cares and woes
To Sweet Briar station do we wend our way.
Who is waiting there in faithful doze
To greet us as we end vacations' day
And pile our bags and baggage as he goes?
'Tis thee, most noble knight, 'tis Mr. Rhea!

DIFFERENT KINDS

SHINEY DEFINES EDUCATION

"Education is doing something that you don't want to do at a time when you'd rather be doing something else."

How she keeps her mind all clear
Of bothering lingo we'd like to hear.
Getting Freshmen out of messes,
Understanding our distresses.
Everyone may have three guesses.
How?

ANY COURSE OF DR. MAC'S—THE FIRST LECTURE

"This is the only / best book of its kind on this subject. It has just been printed and if you read Chapter 1, I guarantee you'll finish it."

The height of proctorship we know
Is some one "shushing" Romeo
The height of nerve, we noticed when
A Fresh asked Tom to fill her pen.

S. C. S. B. H. (semi-confirmed-Sweet Briar hound)—"I don't see how you manage courting heavy and going to school, too."

C. C. B. C. A. S. B. (constant commuter between Charlottesville and Sweet Briar)—"Well, I admit it takes a man to do it."

In all this spring of life and love,
Of flowering green and bud.
The poet sees the sky above,
The pessimist—the mud.

CROSS PATCH DESCRIBES THE STATE

When the last bit OF this volume was finished
THE EDITORS' MINDS

THE RAZBERRY PATCH

We Offer to:

Those outside when Mrs. Worth closes the doors.

A certain one waiting the whole period above for a certain prof.

Those who haunt the special list.

Those who weren't included in the special permission granted "The Amazons."

The ferry system between grammar and academic.

COMMANDMENTS

1. Thou shalt not borrow thy room-mates raiment.

2. Thou shalt not gum thy best friend's date.

3. Thou shalt not take the claim of an E in vain, for the Dean will not hold her guiltless who taketh an E in vain.

4. Thou shalt not blaspheme thy neighbor's love birds, nor her Pittsburgh home, nor her telephone calls, nor her first period class, nor anything that is hers.

5. Thou shalt not take up parking space permanently in the Senior study.

6. Thou shalt not "cat."

7. Thou shalt not partake of filthy fag.

8. Thou shalt not "Shush" thy house president.

9. Thou shalt remember to keep thy clothing wholly—for thy leisure may be long in the land.

10. Thou shalt not serenade every rainy night.

PATCHWORK APOLOGIES

Dogs and women, now and then,
Are cherished by the best of men.

OF PATCHWORK-:-:-

Tell me not in mournful numbers
That I flunked your curs'd class,
For 'tis there I take my slumbers.
O where can I sleep now—alas!

BEAUTY PATCHES

Who do you want for May Queen?

I'd leave school, if she got it!

That pie face?

She'd make the Queen of Sheba look like a Tackey party.

If she doesn't get in the court I'll ask her myself.

Ad infinitum!

Man from White's taking pictures on May Day:

"Humph! If I was taking this picture on a farm they'd call this a hole or a hog-wallow, but at a girl's school they call it a Dell!"

———

We have often vaguely wondered
What would happen if some day—
Went past without a Freshmen
Newly crushed on Sal Athay!

If your money's vanished
And all your allowance spent
By the middle of the month,
Then swear off town for Lent.

What would happen if:—

The Dean preferred Fatima's to Melachrino's.

The Senior study put out a Busy sign Sunday afternoon.

C. Flynn slicked back her hair for breakfast.

J. Grant came to class on time.

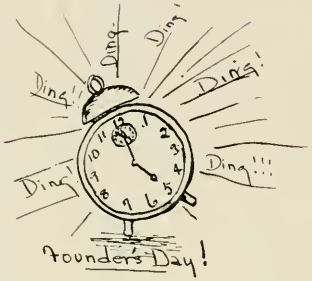

The Sophomores sat back of the third row in chapel.

D. J. had paralysis of the jaw.

Is Margaret Green or Betty Moore so?

Is A. Ford allowed in college—No other cars are!

In our number we have Pope, King, (Mc) Queen, and the Riches—to say nothing of a Brewer(y).

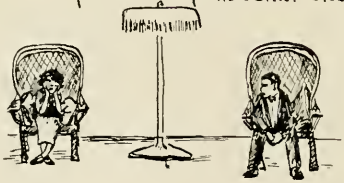

Founders' Day!

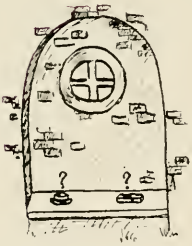

Miss Czarnomska's study

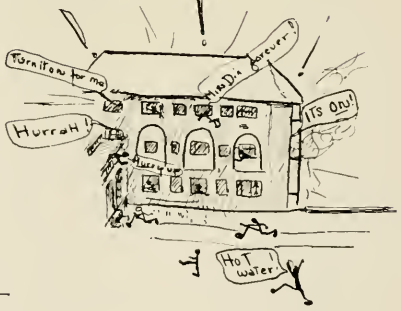

Reformation of the Senior Study.

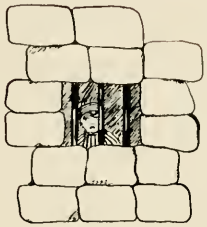

"Longing for the ole Settee."

Sunday afternoon——
—draw your own conclusion—

CAMPUS CRIMES

First Degree—

Tom Rose found in the Library.

Betty Guy confessing to have "cracked the book" before a quiz.

Second Degree—

Someone admiring the Briar Patch proofs.

Anyone admitting that they had a sad time at { U. Va. / W. & L. / V. M. I. / V. P. I. }

Third Degree—

A moving face becomes stationary.

An honor student seen in a class.

MY MAN

My man! You haven't met him?
All right, Dot, over here.
See that one with light hair,
Some one else will cut—no fear.
He certainly is precious—you said a lot that time.
And specials, candy, flowers—say he has some line.
Go on, hon, and rush him—he asked me who you are—
I'll get some one else to break before you've gone real far.
Want to meet my man, Bets? Dance with him a lot—
I've told him all about . . . but . . . he's going out with Dot.

Sweet Briar College Students

WE HEARTILY appreciate the liberal patronage and confidence bestowed on us by the students of S. B. C. in the years that are past. It has been our constant endeavor to merit their patronage through fair dealing and good service, and in every transaction to give ONE DOLLAR'S WORTH FOR ONE DOLLAR. Our stock represents the production of the highest class manufacturers only, and if quality is considered, our prices will be found uniformly moderate. We carry in stock a complete assortment of College Jewelry, comprising Brooches, Pins, Link Buttons, etc. We cheerfully submit designs and estimates for Fraternity, Society and Class Rings, Pins, etc., and ask the opportunity of serving you in this line. Special Manufacturing, Repairing and Engraving of every character done in our own shops. We solicit the patronage of students and faculty.
